

THE NEW DORP MORAVIAN CHURCH
Sunday, June 27, 2021 4th Sunday after Pentecost - 10:00am

WELCOME! We are glad that you are here. If there is anything we can do to help make your experience with us a worshipful one for you today, please ask an usher. As you prepare yourself for worship, spend a moment to speak to God; during the service, let God speak to you; and after the service, join us for fellowship and conversation.

Mask Protocol: Masks may be removed when seated in the pews or at a table. However, out of concern for those who are still at high risk, we ask that masks be worn while walking about in the building.

Thank you for silencing your cell phone.

A LITANY

When we are weary and burdened with troubles, God invites us to come near.

God invites us to call out, to cry out when our hearts are in distress and make our laments known.

In our pain, God’s love brings wholeness and peace.

Our souls wait for God, more than those who watch for the morning.

Draw near, all who hope against hope for healing and release.

Hear Jesus proclaim hope to all: “Do not fear; only believe.”

Our souls wait for God, more than those who watch for the morning.

Draw near, all who jump for joy in God’s presence.

We will rejoice in the abundance of life.

Be eager and generous in sharing.

Our souls wait for God, more than those who watch for the morning.

Let us rejoice in the reality of what God is doing in our lives right now. Let us hear the words of hope and, let us draw near and wait in God's presence.

We will wait patiently for the Lord, our souls will wait expectantly, for in God's word we find our hope.

“As the Deer”

P&W #200

As the deer pants for the water
So my soul longs after You
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You

You alone are my strength, my shield
To You alone may my spirit yield
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You

You are my friend
And You are brother
Even though You are a King
I love You more than any other so much more than anything

You alone are my strength, my shield
To You alone may my spirit yield
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You
And I long to worship You

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

Healing and merciful God, hear our confessions about times when we have thought only about ourselves and not about you or others.

For those times when we have used our hands to strike out, to tear up, and to destroy – forgive us.

Teach us to use our hands in friendship and care.

For those times when fail to see all people as your children, or when we look upon others with hatred – forgive us.

Teach us to use our eyes in friendship and care.

For those times when we have spoken when we should have stayed silent, and the times when we have been silent when we should have spoken boldly on behalf of others – forgive us.

Teach us to use our mouths with friendship and care.

For those times when use our ears to hear only what we want to hear – forgive us.

Teach us to use our ears in friendship and care.

Teach us to use our ears in friendship and care.

For those times when we close our hearts to you – forgive us.

Teach us to open our hearts, and to serve others with friendship and care.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Our hands are at work for God's realm;
Our feet know the way towards love;
Our eyes see with courage what needs to be done;
Our mouths call boldly on the grace of God;
Our ears listen to the cries of the world
Our hearts trust in God's mercy
Let us go as forgiven people,
and bring hope and healing to the world.

Amen.
