Office Hours :

The Office will be open on Tuesdays through Thursdays from (9am-1pm) and working remotely from home on Mondays and Fridays, monitoring phone calls and emails.

Seeds for Thought:

Eyes wide shut. There are times when our eyes are open, but we just don't see. We don't see God's hand at work. We don't see God's presence in our midst. To see with the eyes of faith is to see fresh possibilities. Sometimes those most open and responsive to such possibilities jar our expectations of who can "see." Those who are blind, those who are poor or powerless, those who suffer, those who are young, those who are threatened - these may teach us about faith that is open to seeing the way of Christ. Such faith, such "seeing", creates, transforms, restores, and gives hope. So, what do you need from Christ to be able to "see" with eyes, and a faith wide open?

NDMC COVID-19 Precautions and Protocols

We ask that ALL persons to wear a mask while walking in, and through the building. Masks do not have to be worn while sitting in the pews or while sitting at tables. Please practice social distancing.

NEW DORP MORAVIAN CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the New Dorp Moravian Church is:
To Grow in Christ, to Know His love, to Follow His Footsteps.

CONGREGATION WATCHWORD for 2021

The Moravian Church is a Protestant church. Moravians are Trinitarian (God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit), are Christ-centered (affirming the Lordship of Jesus Christ by His life, death and resurrection) and affirm the Old and New Testaments as sacred scripture. Moravians affirm and value the ancient Creeds (e.g. The Apostle’s Creed) but believe that equally important is how we live in relationship with God and others. Moravians have emphasized the sacredness of living our faith rather than just reciting it or preaching it.

If you would like to know more about what a “Moravian” is, are looking for a new church home, or just want to talk with someone about a concern or your faith, Emma would be glad to direct you to a Moravian Pastor, due to our New Dorp Pastor retiring. She can be reached by phone or email to arrange a time with a sister church.

To contact Emma, you may call or email her at:

Office Phone: (718) 351-0090. Email: Office@newdorpmoravian.org

If you have an idea, a suggestion, a concern, or are interest in serving on a committee, please speak with one of the Board members.
