Seeds for Thought:

In the Scripture, prayers and hymns of this Second Sunday of Advent, John the Baptist brings us to the Jordan River and the waters of baptism. He calls us to repent, for the reign of God is near. In his message, John offers hope to the despairing, and challenges us all to remain united in our common mission of proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ. From the celebration of Word and

Sacrament - from the center of our worship - we are called to go forth as a people whose mission is the proclamation of God's mercy and love, comfort and compassion

NDMC COVID-19 Precautions and Protocols

We ask that ALL persons to wear a mask while walking in and through the building. Masks do not have to be worn while sitting in the pews or while sitting at tables. Please practice social distancing. Be aware that some are still uncomfortable shaking hands or having unmasked people standing in their “comfort zone.”

While getting the vaccine is a matter of choice, for the sake of your health, as well as for the sake and safety of your loved ones and our children, we strongly advise all eligible persons to get the vaccine and observe all reasonable directives issued by the City and the CDC.

CONGREGATION WATCHWORD for 2021

“You are the salt of the earth.” Matthew 5:13

The Moravian Church is a Protestant church. Moravians are Trinitarian (God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit), are Christ-centered (affirming the Lordship of Jesus Christ by His life, death and resurrection) and affirm the Old and New Testaments as sacred scripture. Moravians affirm and value the ancient Creeds (e.g. The Apostle’s Creed) but believe that equally important is how we live in relationship with God and others. Moravians have emphasized the sacredness of living our faith rather than just reciting it or preaching it.

If you would like to know more about what a “Moravian” is, are looking for a new church home, or just want to talk with someone about a concern or your faith, Emma would be glad to direct you to a Moravian Pastor, due to our New Dorp Pastor retiring. She can be reached by phone or email to arrange a time with a sister church.

To contact Emma, you may call or email her at:

Office Phone: (718) 351-0090. Email: Office@newdorpMoravian.org

If you have an idea, a suggestion, a concern, or are interest in serving on a committee, please speak with one of the Board members.
