Seeds for Thought:

Today is the last Sunday in the season of Epiphany. The  and Common Lectionary, which gives us the  assigned for each Sunday, assigns the event called the Transfiguration of Jesus to this Sunday. In these lessons, along with the disciples, we witness Jesus revealed in glory. We read how Moses and Elijah appeared, and the appearance of Jesus was changed in the presence of the disciples. We read, too, that the disciples were also changed.

As we gather here today in the presence of God, the questions for us are: How are we changed when we enter the presence of God? And how are we being changed by Gods' glorious love that is revealed to us in Jesus Christ, our Lord?

NDMC COVID-19 Precautions and Protocols

We ask that ALL persons to wear a mask while walking in and through the building. Masks do not have to be worn while sitting in the pews or while sitting at tables. Please practice social distancing. Be aware that some are still uncomfortable shaking hands or having unmasked people standing in their "comfort zone."

While getting the vaccine is a matter of choice, for the sake of your health, as well as for the sake and safety of your loved ones and our children, we strongly advise all eligible persons to get the vaccine and observe all reasonable directives issued by the City and the CDC.

CONGREGATION WATCHWORD for 2022

“God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.”
1 Thessalonians 5:9

The Moravian Church is a Protestant church. Moravians are Trinitarian (God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit), are Christ-centered (affirming the Lordship of Jesus Christ by His life, death and resurrection) and affirm the Old and New Testaments as sacred scripture. Moravians affirm and value the ancient Creeds (e.g. The Apostle’s Creed) but believe that equally important is how we live in relationship with God and others. Moravians have emphasized the sacredness of living our faith rather than just reciting it or preaching it.

If you would like to know more about what a “Moravian” is, are looking for a new church home, or just want to talk with someone about a concern or your faith, Emma would be glad to direct you to a Moravian Pastor, due to our New Dorp Pastor retiring. She can be reached by phone or email to arrange a time with a sister church.

To contact Emma, you may call or email her at:

Office Phone: (718) 351-0090. Email: Office@newdorpmoravian.org
