Seeds for Thought:

This Sunday has two titles, Palm Sunday and Sur the Passion. Today also has two moods. The  at festival frenzy of the palms, that malverious chaos, a festive dress rehearsal for an Easter triumph. There is also a second mood, the solemn side of the day - for even as we start the day shouting A Hosanna, we soon discover that this King who rides a borrowed colt, will soon endure taunting, betrayal, torture, with shouts turning to Crucify! The journey of Holy Week invites us to enter into the passion of the Messiah.

Let us not be in such a hurry to join the parade, or to reach the empty Tomb, that we miss the message and the power of the Cross.

CONGREGATION WATCHWORD for 2022

“ God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.”
1 Thessalonians 5:9

The Moravian Church is a Protestant church. Moravians are Trinitarian (God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit), are Christ-centered (affirming the Lordship of Jesus Christ by His life, death and resurrection) and affirm the Old and New Testaments as sacred scripture. Moravians affirm and value the ancient Creeds (e.g. The Apostle’s Creed) but believe that equally important is how we live in relationship with God and others. Moravians have emphasized the sacredness of living our faith rather than just reciting it or preaching it.

If you would like to know more about what a “Moravian” is, are looking for a new church home, or just want to talk with someone about a concern or your faith, Emma would be glad to direct you to a Moravian Pastor, due to our New Dorp Pastor retiring. She can be reached by phone or email to arrange a time with a sister church.

To contact Emma, you may call or email her at:

Office Phone: (718) 351-0090. Email: Office@newdorpmoravian.org

If you have an idea, a suggestion, a concern, or are interest in serving on a committee, please speak with one of the Board members.
