Sixth Sunday After Pentecost

Indicates everyone who is able is invited to stand

PREPARATION: Welcome. We are glad that you are here to worship as we gather today. As we gather on this Lord's Day, let us turn our hearts toward God who can calm our fears, cool our turmoil of our souls, restore our hope, and fill our lives with abundant joy. As you share in quiet conversation, please be aware that others around you may be preparing themselves for worship with a few moments in silence and prayer.

As you prepare for worship, please remember to silence your cell phone.

GREETINGS AND WELCOME

WATCHWORD FOR THE WEEK: - Is anything too wonderful for the Lord?
Genesis 18:14

A Prayer to Prepare: "God, help us to control our tongues! Our human error allows us to spit harsh words in emotional moments, only to regret them within a few minutes. Bind our tongues and teach us to think before we speak. Amen."

(2022 Moravian Daily Text)

PRELUDE

* HYMNS of PREPARATION "How Great thou art" MBW #465

*A LITANY

Leader: In the peace of a summer morning,

People: We come together to praise Christ Jesus and to pray,

We are joined by him in this caring faith community.

We find His calm during our times of struggles.

We are challenged by him to oppose fear-making forces.

Christ gives us peace, because He is our peace.

We are invited by Christ to a place of rest and quietness,

So the depths of our soul and spirit may know His peace.

Come to that place of reflection and prayer,

So we may receive the renewal that only he can give.

We worship together as a faith community,

In the search for a direction, together we may find our way.

We also worship as a faith community,

So that we will find our common faith, our common purpose,
our common voice, and our common mission.

Come with us, O Christ, as we worship, and as we consider the gifts and skills and talents you have given us,

So that individuals, and as a united community of faith, we may rededicate ourselves to serving You, and those you would have us serve in Your Name. Amen

(please be seated)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Prince of peace, without your love we are hopelessly distant from you. We know the brokenness of our living, the emptiness of our pursuits, the futility of our hope for fulfillment apart from your power and your love. We confess to you our frailty and our sinful condition.

Into the fears and doubts that disturb our faith; into the conflicted priorities and hopes of this faith community; into the conflict of our world where injustice is reality, breath the gentle, calming influence of your spirit. Amen
